Dear Editor,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to express my sincere gratitude for the comments and suggestions received following the review of our manuscript titled "Foreign direct investment and sustainable development in Asia: Bibliometric analysis and systematic literature review," submitted to Sustainability.

I greatly appreciate the time and effort invested in the review, as well as the insightful feedback provided, which has been invaluable in improving the quality of our work. We have carefully considered all the points raised and have made the necessary revisions to enhance the manuscript in line with the journal's standards:

- Line 2: Title modified from "Foreign direct investment and sustainability development in the Asian continent: Bibliometric analysis and systematic literature review" to "Foreign direct investment and sustainable development in Asia: Bibliometric analysis and systematic literature review"
- Line 3: Charts translated.
- Line 4: Section 3.2.2.2 adjusted.
- Line 5: To avoid confusion, the table was modified to include only continents. In addition, it was indicated that research areas corresponding to countries spanning more than one continent would be categorized as "other".
- Line 6: Chart also modified, justifying the choice of time period in the text.
- Line 7: Modified.
- Line 8: Clarified, the figure refers to the percentage of studies whose research area focuses on Asia.

Please find the revised document attached, or were detected. If not, it is suggested that the suggestions should your refers to "additional information or clarification, I would be happy to provide it.

Once again, thank you for the opportunity to submit our work to Sustainability, and I hope that the modifications made meet your expectations.

We look forward to your further comments.

Sincerely,

Dr. Alexander Toribio López
