The work entitled “Galactomyces ferment filtrate, an antioxidative AHR-modulating cosmetic ingredient, might potentiate an antiinflammaging system in keratinocytes” (jcm-1946202) has been designed and conducted well, with a remarkable conclusion. However, the authors should address some issues before considering the manuscript for publication (minor revision).

→ Thank you very much for your encouraging comments.

The manuscript should be revised for linguistic, grammatical, word spacing, and style errors. The format of the whole manuscript and the reference style must comply with the guidelines of the Journal.

→ Thank you very much for your helpful comments. According to your comments, the article was edited by native English editor as certified below. We also re-checked the reference style to fit into the JCM format.

Thank you very much again for your valuable review. We hope the revised article is now suitable for publication in JCM.
