The authors should explain better where is the innovativeness with respect to the state of the art in the literature. The literature review in the Introduction section deals with the topic, but is more general with respect to the particular piece of work proposed in this manuscript. Therefore, from the discussion in the Introduction I can't really understand the added value of this work	1. Introduction, Lines 70-91, Pages 2-3	The authors added the explanation of the added value that this work has.
Authors should show a comparative analysis with other methods, and the results could be compared. The results should be more discussed.	5. Conclusions, Lines 627-634 645-652 679-684, Pages 24, 25, 26	The authors incorporated other studies in which different methodologies were followed, and the results identified were compared with the work presented.
