

Comments to the Authors regarding the manuscript entitled “YKL-40 and cellular metabolic profile in Parkinson's disease (IJMS-2672705)”.

Dear author(s),

I appreciate the diligence you have applied in revising your manuscript. The effort you have invested is evident in the quality of your work. It is essential to articulate these efforts clearly within your manuscript, as it is a significant step in scholarly communication.

I have observed that the formats of panels a and b in Figure 2 are inconsistent. Please address this discrepancy to maintain the uniformity of the presentation.

I extend my best wishes for your continued research endeavors. Please show your strong job ethics.

Warm regards,

Reviewer.
