

Reviewer 3

Comments

In the Introduction section, the authors describe the importance of the subject chosen and clearly state the link between stroke and colorectal cancer. Therefore, it increases the interest of the reader regarding the article.

The Materials and Methods section presents the design of the study, taking into consideration the ethical aspects of the study.

The results are presented in detail, using tables and figures for better understanding of them by the reader. Statistical data is also provided in this section.

After comparing the results with other studies from literature and presenting the study limitations, the conclusions are stated based on the results obtained.

Response:

The authors thank the reviewer for the time and effort spent in participating in the review process of our manuscript. The section-by-section evaluation of the manuscript by the reviewer is highly appreciated. The comments have helped to improve the quality of the paper.