Reviewer 2:
1. Thank you for taking into account most of my comments. However, I note again that most of the scientific sources cited come from Asia. Due to the fact that it is good scientific practice to take care of the balance and representativeness of research centers from around the world, I strongly suggest citing the articles of scientists from Europe. I am convinced that this will contribute to the citation of the article.

   Thank you for your valuable suggestion which is very important to us. It is true that we did not pay close attention to the representativeness of the cited literature. After carefully consideration, we have decided to quote the following papers from European scholars:

   The suggestions have been adopted in the revised manuscript.
